London Believes Russia Is Awaiting West Front Attack

LONDON, July 30.—All the newspapers here this morning give great prominence to an official statement from Petrograd that Russia awaits a Franco-British diversion, which is interpreted as an intimation from the great eastern power that it is time to abandon the Joffre policy of "nibbling" and deliver a general attack on the western front in order to force Germany to reduce her forces, estimated at 2,000,000, part from the Austrians, facing the Russians in the eastern theater of war.
It also is believed to be an intimation that Russia hopes for a great battle at the Dardanelles, which will smash the Turks and allow munitions and provisions to reach her so Grand Duke Nicholas' armies which have been bearing the brunt of the titanic struggle, may resume the offensive and

French Submarines Raid

LONDON, July 30.—Successful retaliatory submarine warfare by the French against the Germans is reported in a despatch from the Copenhagen Politken, which says French undersea craft did great damage in the harbor of Zeebrugge, held by the Germans.

Cadorna Prepares for the Corno plateau, after having captured Austrian trenches and occupied strategic heights, are devoting their energies to consolidating the positions preparatory to a general attack on Goritz, the Isonzo stronghold. In addition, however, they have made further advances, according to the line, according to the official report.

Brussels Fined for

U. S. TO RUSH AID TO MEXICO

toward Paredon. The dispatch adds that the Carranzista forces are in hot pursuit.

"Information received from Torreón," announced the agency, "indicate that the Villista garrison at that important city has been greatly reduced, and that the line of defense of the Villistas has been extended southwest from Torreón in the direction of Durango. This same report announced that Emilio and Raoul Madero arrived at El Paso today with the remnants of their former military following. At El Paso they had joined Julio Madero and other members of the family. The Maderos admit now that they have been forced to recognize the enormous error they made in taking sides with the Villista movement. They are determined not to return to Mexico.
"Casas Grandes, in the northwestern part of Chihuahua has been captured by a constitutionalist force. This was confirmed by the departure today of the military commander of Juarez, who went to Chihuahua on a recruiting expedition in the hope of organizing a force sufficiently strong to retake Casas Grandes. Exchange on Villa money fell yesterday in Juarez to one cent gold on the peso."

Mexicans With Gold
Unable to Get Food;
Many Starved to Death

Extreme chaos accompanied by even a more serious shortage of food than that of two weeks ago reigns in Mexico City, according to a report just received at Red Cross headquarters from Charles J.
O'Connor, one of its special representatives.

In his message Mr. O'Connor says:
"People are actually dying of starvation, as I can prove by doctors and nurses."
In a letter which arrived about the same time as the cable, Mr. O'Connor says: "I have seen groups of women going about carrying money in one hand, while in the other market baggels which their gold could not fill for the relief of starving families. On July 30 I met on the street a bank teller who gets 200 pesos a month salary and has property here. He was trying to get food tickets from any organization that could furnish them. He showed us a purse full of money—500 or 600 pesos of the currency that even the bankers thought would be recognized by the constitutionalists. This is one of many instances of the hardships prevailing throughout the city."

$100 in Villa Currency Can Be Bought for $1.70

EL PASO, July 30.—Money dealers are losing faith in the Villa cause. Villa's currency was quoted today in El Paso at $1.70 per $100, the lowest figure any Mexican faction money has reached during the revolutionary period.
Carranza currency also has dropped in value, being quoted today at 7 cents, but the federal issue remains at 18 cents.

U. S. PROTESTS OVER PASSPORT FORGERY

State Department Sends Berlin Information of Alleged Frauds.

German forgeries of American passports are imperiling all real Americans in territory of the allies, and the protest of the State Department to Berlin, forwarded last night, was strong in condemnation of the alleged fraudulent issue of the American documents.

Representations were made to the State Department yesterday that a passport factory is in full operation in Belgium, under the supervision of German army officers. The factory, it is understood, has a complete outfit for forging American passports, even to the manufacture of the paper with the American army officers. The factory, it is unralized American.

"(J) A British subject.
"Of the above, A, C, H, and I, since their arrest, have made a full confession of their mission. They will all be charged with attempting to collect and communicate to the enemy information regarding the fleet and military forces, with the intention of assisting the enemy or committing an act preparatory thereto.

British Jail German With False Passport

PLYMOUTH, July 30.—Carl Reinhard, who was traveling from New York to Holland on the steamship Rotterdam, was taken off that ship charged with being a German subject traveling under an assumed name, and has been sentenced to six months at hard labor.
Reinhard is believed to have been a German who resided at Richmond, London, and who went to New York ostensibly in connection with the rubber industry. When arrested he produced a Swiss passport issued twelve years ago in the name of Alfred Geysell. Subsequently he admitted that the passport was forged, and that he was a German.

New American Passport Scandal Is Uncovered

LONDON, July 30.—Another American passport scandal has been uncovered by the arrest here of a man who professes to be an American, but who is declared by the British authorities to be a German traveling on a forged American passport. The man's name is being concealed. It is alleged that he is one of many who have bogus

Dallas Bids For 1916 Convention

Texas City Just About Determined That Democrats Shall Meet There Next Year.

Dallas, Texas, is a bidder for the Democratic National Convention of 1916.
In fact, Dallas is rather determined to land that convention if bidding and political influence amount to anything.
Postmaster General Burleson, Atorney General Gregory and Cato Sells, Indian Commissioner, are among Government officials said to favor the Texas city and this gives Dallas much hope.
Fifteen members of the National Committee, which selects the convention city, are alleged to be partial to Dallas. Robert Galbreath, committeeman from Tulsa, Okla., which is comparatively near Dallas, is now in Washington and thinks eventually there will be a majority vote for the city of the South.
